Directions from Euston Station

Walk into the station forecourt with the platforms behind you and head towards the exits to the left of the station. You should walk to the main road on the left which is Eversholt Street. Turn right onto this road and walk down to the traffic lights at the junction with Euston Road.

Cross straight over the road which turns into Upper Woburn Place. There will be a Prezzo restaurant on the right-hand corner. Walk down this road and at the Hilton hotel cross the road at the zebra crossing. Keep walking past the Four Points Flex by Sheraton hotel.

The BMA House entrance is the next main door and is signed BMA Reception.

There will be a blue sign outside to point you to the reception. The entrance with the archway is the security entrance.

Directions from Kings Cross Station

See the clean air walking route on page 4. Walk out of the main exit of the station – you will be on Euston Road. Turn right up Euston Road with Kings Cross behind.

Follow Euston Road straight for about five minutes until you get to a fire station on the right-hand side (on route you will pass the Renaissance Hotel and British Library on your right).

At the traffic lights by the fire station turn left to cross Euston Road onto Upper Woburn Place. You will see a Prezzo Restaurant on the opposite corner. Walk along Upper Woburn Place for a couple of minutes – keep walking past Four Points Flex by Sheraton Hotel.

The BMA House entrance is the next main door and is signed BMA Reception.

There will be a blue sign outside to point you to the reception. The entrance with the archway is the security entrance.

Directions from Russell Square Station

Exit the station and cross the road at the zebra crossing to the Tesco Express store. Turn left and walk to the end of the road, The Morton Hotel will be on your right-hand side.

Turn right on to Upper Woburn Place and continue straight forward. Continue straight crossing over Coram Street and continue onto Tavistock Square.

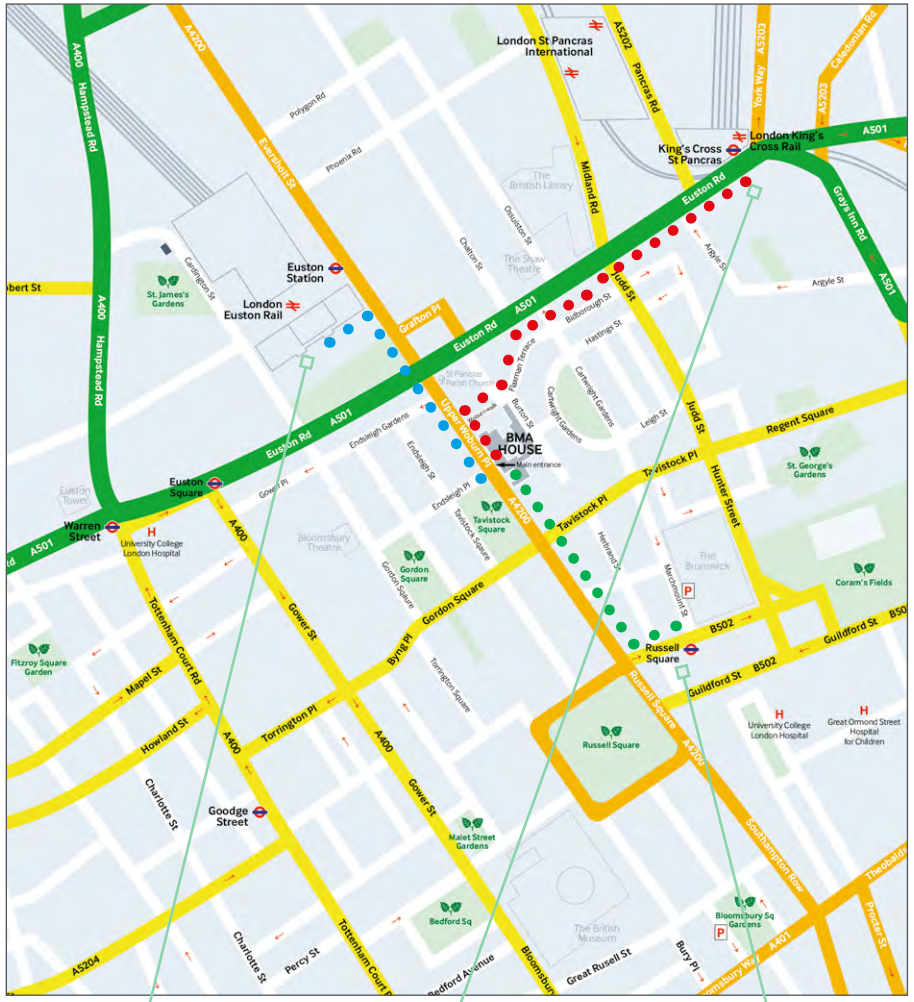

Continue straight and you should pass Starbucks on your right-hand side. Walk past the red Royal Mail post-box and the main entrance to BMA House is the next set to blue doors your right and is signed BMA Reception. There will be a blue sign outside to point you to the reception. The entrance with the archway is the security entrance.

Arrival and refreshments

Entrance to arrive

The designated entrance for Events is Entrance C, also known as the Main Reception. It is located adjacent to the large arch, centrally positioned within the building. The Reception Team will welcome all attendees and assist with the registration process upon arrival.

Onsite café: 1832 Garden café

We are pleased to offer all visitors access to The 1832 Garden Café, located in the lower ground floor. The café provides a comfortable and inviting environment , serving a variety of refreshments and light meals.

1832 Garden Café opening hours are the following:
Monday to Thursday: 8:30am – 4pm
Friday: 8:30am – 3:30pm

For visitors accompanied by assistance dogs, water bowls are available at the café to ensure they are well cared for during your visit.

We invite you to enjoy a break, whether you are looking for a quick snack or a relaxing meal in a welcoming atmosphere.

Assistance and support

We are committed to ensuring that all visitors feel safe, comfortable, and supported during their time in the building. Below is an overview of the assistance available:

Designated place of safety: a designated place of safety is available for anyone who may feel scared or at risk. This is located on the basement floor, next to the Dickens Room, and can be accessed at any time for immediate assistance.

Hearing assistance systems: fixed hearing assistance systems are installed in several of our meeting rooms and event spaces. Additionally, portable hearing assistance systems can be provided upon request and are available for use in all meeting rooms and event spaces that do not have fixed systems.

British Sign Language: while we do not have a member of staff trained in British Sign Language (BSL) it something we hope to bring into the future. We will do our best to support as best we can.

Reception assistance: a member of our team is always available at the reception desk to provide help and assistance, whether it be directions, guidance, or any other support you may need during your visit.

Wheelchair availability: a wheelchair is available for the use at the reception, and we encourage visitors who require one to request it upon arrival.

For further information and assist with your visit, please refer to the following resources:
